

	Result Unknown	Change Unknown	Start Unknown
Join	Jo Ann had _____ teddy bears. Her mom gave her _____ more teddy bears. How many bears does _____ have altogether?	Jo Ann had _____ gummy bears. She brought some more. Then she had _____ gummy bears. How many gummy bears did Jo Ann buy?	Jo Ann had some teddy bear stickers. She bought _____ more stickers. Then she had _____ stickers altogether. How many stickers did Jo Ann have to start with?
Separate	Robert had _____ teddy bears. He gave _____ away. How many teddy bears did Robert have left?	Robert had _____ gummy bears. He shared some with his friend. The Robert had _____ gummy bears left. How many did he give to his friend?	Robert had some Teddy Grahams. He ate _____ of them. The he had _____ left. How many Teddy Grahams did Robert have to start with?
	Difference Unknown	Compare Total Unknown	Reference Set Unknown
Compare	Bob has _____ teddy bears. Jim has _____ bears. How many more bears does Bob have than Jim?	The toy store has _____ white teddy bears. It has _____ more brown teddy bears than white ones. How many brown bears does the toy store have?	Mary has _____ teddy bears. She has _____ more teddy bears than her friend Sue. How many teddy bears does Sue have?
	Whole Unknown	Part Unknown
Part- Part- Whole	Suzanne has _____ big bears and _____ little bears. How many bears does Suzanne have altogether?	Suzanne has _____ teddy bears. _____ of them have a bow. How many bears does Suzanne have without bows?

Children's Literature to Connect:

Adapted from CGI Problems for Primary Students, 1996